

DAVENPORT MEMORIAL
ALUMNUS LECTURE
& Student Awards
Ceremony

April 28, 2016
YMCA Great Hall

Welcome & Introductions

*Dr. Ted George
Department Head*

Presentation of Graduate Essay Prize

*Dr. Kristi Sweet
Director of Graduate Studies*

Patrick Anderson – “Levinas and the Anticolonial”

*John Curran “Curry” O’Day – “No Mere Agnostic: Locke and
the Language of Metaphysics”*

Presentation of Undergraduate Essay Prize

*Dr. Linda Radzik
Professor, Department of Philosophy*

*Bryan Collins – “Punishment and the Prison Problem: Why
We Punish and Why Prisons Are Not the Solution”*

Presentation of Manual Davenport Prize

*Dr. Linda Radzik
Professor, Department of Philosophy*

Kenneth Sloan Evans

*Davenport Memorial Alumnus Lecture Dr. Stephen Puryear ‘00
Assistant Professor of Philosophy, Affiliate in Classical Studies
North Carolina State University*

“The Trouble with Leibniz’s Principle of Intelligibility”

DAVENPORT MEMORIAL
ALUMNUS LECTURE
& Student Awards
Ceremony

April 28, 2016
YMCA Great Hall

Welcome & Introductions

*Dr. Ted George
Department Head*

Presentation of Graduate Essay Prize

*Dr. Kristi Sweet
Director of Graduate Studies*

Patrick Anderson – “Levinas and the Anticolonial”

*John Curran “Curry” O’Day – “No Mere Agnostic: Locke and
the Language of Metaphysics”*

Presentation of Undergraduate Essay Prize

*Dr. Linda Radzik
Professor, Department of Philosophy*

*Bryan Collins – “Punishment and the Prison Problem: Why
We Punish and Why Prisons Are Not the Solution”*

Presentation of Manual Davenport Prize

*Dr. Linda Radzik
Professor, Department of Philosophy*

Kenneth Sloan Evans

*Davenport Memorial Alumnus Lecture Dr. Stephen Puryear ‘00
Assistant Professor of Philosophy, Affiliate in Classical Studies
North Carolina State University*

“The Trouble with Leibniz’s Principle of Intelligibility”